

Tongue Twisters #2

Here are some challenging tongue twisters to help improve pronunciation:

1. She sells seashells by the seashore.
2. How much wood would a woodchuck chuck, if a woodchuck could chuck wood?
3. Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers.
4. Unique New York.
5. Red lorry, yellow lorry.
6. The seething sea ceased and thus the seething sea sufficed us.
7. Irish wristwatch, Swiss wristwatch.
8. I saw Susie sitting in a shoeshine shop.
9. A proper copper coffee pot.
10. The sixth sick sheikh's sixth sheep's sick.

Remember to start slow and increase your speed as you become more comfortable with the tongue twister.

Here are some additional challenging tongue twisters:

1. How can a clam cram in a clean cream can?
2. Fuzzy Wuzzy was a bear. Fuzzy Wuzzy had no hair. Fuzzy Wuzzy wasn't very fuzzy, was he?
3. Three free throws.
4. Toy boat, toy boat, toy boat.
5. I wish to wish the wish you wish to wish, but if you wish the wish the witch wishes, I won't wish the wish you wish to wish.
6. Betty Botter bought some butter, but she said the butter's bitter. If I put it in my batter, it will make my batter bitter. So, she bought some better butter, better than the bitter butter, and put it in her batter, and the batter was not bitter.
7. I saw a kitten eating chicken in the kitchen.
8. Black bug's blood.
9. Can you can a can as a canner can can a can?

10. Six slimy snails sailed silently.

Remember to practice slowly at first and gradually increase your speed as you become more comfortable with the tongue twister.

Here are some tongue twisters that focus on the sounds of "v" and "w":

1. Vincent vowed to vote for the violinist.
2. Wendy went to the window and watched Walter wash his wagon.
3. Very well, Victor, we will weave a woolen vest for you.
4. William's winter vegetables were very valuable.
5. Vicky views the vivid violet vines while walking by the river.
6. Walter was worried about the weather while driving in his Volkswagen van.
7. Veronica and Vanessa often volunteer at the veterinary clinic.
8. Valerie was very vocal about the violinist's victory.
9. Wendy wove a wreath of wheat for her wedding.
10. Victor's vibrant velvet vest was a visual victory.

Remember to practice each tongue twister slowly at first and then gradually increase your speed as you become more comfortable with the sounds.

Here are some tongue twisters that focus on the sounds of "sh" and "ch":

1. She sells seashells by the seashore, and the shells she sells are surely seashells.
2. Charlie chose to chew cheesy chicken chips in the church.
3. Sharon shared a sheet with Sasha and Shane.
4. The chef chopped the cherry cheese pie into chunks.
5. Shelly and Chad shuffled along the shore, searching for shells and sea glass.
6. Cheryl chose to chase the cheeky chimpanzee.
7. The fisherman's ship sailed smoothly in the shallow sea.
8. The chatty child chanted cheerfully while chewing chocolate.
9. The shy sheep shivered in the shed.

10. Sheena's shampoo shop sells shampoos for shiny, silky hair.

Remember to practice each tongue twister slowly at first and then gradually increase your speed as you become more comfortable with the sounds.

Here are some tongue twisters that focus on the sounds of "r" and "l":

- 1. Rory's rare red ruby really radiates.
- 2. Lisa loves lively lullabies and Robert's rhapsodies.*
- 3. Red lorry, yellow lorry, red lorry, yellow lorry.
- 4. Larry and Roger's roaring roller coaster ride was really rapid.*
- 5. Lola's lollipops look lovely in the light.
- 6. Ryan's rowdy rooster ran around the ranch.*
- 7. Laura learned to lure the luring lure into the lure.
- 8. Ruby really likes to ride her bicycle along the river.*
- 9. Ronald's round rubber ball rolled rapidly down the road.
- 10. Lila's lovely lavender lotion is luxurious.*

Remember to practice each tongue twister slowly at first and then gradually increase your speed as you become more comfortable with the sounds.

Here are some tongue twisters that focus on the sounds of "tt" and "r":

- 1. The bitter batter was better with butter.
- 2. Terry tried to train his pet tiger to trot faster.*
- 3. Rita writes romantic rhymes in her red room.
- 4. Betty bought a bit of bitter butter but found it made her batter bitter.*
- 5. Peter's sister Tracy travels to Toronto twice a year.
- 6. Rory's writing is riddled with witty wit and wry witicism.*
- 7. The tattered tartan hat sat on the rusty railing.
- 8. Tom taught Tina to type on the tiny typewriter.*

9. Randy the rat runs rapidly around the room.

10. The pretty parrot perched on the porch, preening its feathers.

Remember to practice each tongue twister slowly at first and then gradually increase your speed as you become more comfortable with the sounds.

Here are some tongue twisters that focus on the sounds of "er" and "n":

1. The stern nurse learned to discern herbs and ferns.

2. Bernie burned the barn with his burnt burger.

3. The nervous nerd never noticed the nurse's nursery rhyme.

4. The fervent fern merchant learned to earn money from ferns.

5. Norman's northern nose never notices the nervous neighbor's new necklace.

6. The persistent person learned to discern between certain uncertain versions of the sermon.

7. The burnished urn in the corner earned the stern nurse's concern.

8. The person's version of the personification was persuasive.

9. The northern nurse learned to discern the stern verdict.

10. Vern turned the ferns, earning his earnings.

Here are some tongue twisters that focus on the sounds of "p", "b", and "er":

1. Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers with his brother Bob.

2. The big brown bear bit the bitter butterscotch biscuit.

3. The purple penguin painted the perfect portrait of a prosperous power plant.

4. Betty Botter bought some butter but the butter was bitter, so she bought some better butter to make the bitter butter better.

5. The perturbed bird perched on the perch, peering through the purple persimmon trees.

6. Bobby bought a puppy with a big brown bowl and a bib.

7. The slippery serpent slid silently through the slithering shadows.
8. Paul's pool is filled with playful polka-dotted ping pong balls.
9. Bernie burned the barn with his burnt burger but he still learned to earn by turning the burner.
10. The perturbed bee buzzed by the pear tree, waiting for the perfect time to take a sip of nectar.

Here are some tongue twisters that focus on the sounds of "th" and "tt":

1. The thirty-three thieves thought that they thrilled the throne throughout Thursday.
2. The butter in the batter made the batter better.
3. The thoughtful thing thought through the thick Thursday fog.
4. The little kitten sat on the mittens waiting for the mittens to be knitted.
5. The thing that threw the thing at the thing was the thing that was most thoughtful.
6. The better the butter, the better the batter will be.
7. The weather is either that or it's hot and heavy with thunderstorms and hailstones.
8. Betty bought some butter but the butter was bitter so she bought some better butter to make the bitter butter better.
9. Matt sat on the mat with his cat while he chatted with Pat.
10. The thoughtless thug threw the thick thread through the thief's throat.

Here are some tongue twisters that focus on the sounds of "ed", "the", and "tt":

1. The teddy bear threaded the thin thread through the thick fabric.
2. Eddie edited the editor's edited edition without her consent.
3. The thing that the thief thought was worth stealing was the thoughtful theme of the thesis.
4. Betty bettered her batter with a bit of bitter butter.
5. The tattered tarp that fluttered in the breeze was tethered tightly to the tree.

6. The edgy editor edited the essay with extreme enthusiasm.
7. The thing that the theater thought through the thick Thursday fog was the thought that the theme was thoughtful.
8. The letter that the little lady wrote to the editor of the local newspaper was read by the whole community.
9. The butter that Betty bought was so bitter that she bettered her batter with some better butter.
10. The kitten that sat on the mat with Matt and his cat chatted with Pat about the thoughtless thug who threw the thick thread through the thief's throat.

Here are some tongue twisters that focus on the sounds of "ear", "er", and "w":

1. The early bird heard the worms squirm in the earth.
2. The world is full of whirlwinds and whirlpools that whirl and whirl.
3. The purple cow with curly fur and a swirly tail wore a pearl necklace.
4. The word "work" and the word "world" sound different but both start with a "w".
5. The squirrel with the furled tail hurled the acorn at the bird's perch.
6. The girl with the curls swirled around the world in a whirlwind of wonder.
7. The worth of the pearls that the girl wore on her wrist was worth more than the worth of her entire wardrobe.
8. The worm in the earth was heard by the early bird who twirled his head.
9. The swirl of the wind in the willow tree made a whistling sound.
10. The person who worries too much about the world will likely never find true peace.